US BANKRUPTCY COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF WI

Respondent's Response AND OBJECTION TO ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE REGARDING FEES
OF BANKRUPTCY PETITION PREPARER

The respondent Stephen Lee submits the following response
AND objection to the order to show cause regarding fees of petition preparer Mr. Lee:

1. The respondent operates a pro se Self Help center which helps people help themselves specifically if they want to file bankruptcy under the bankruptcy code
2. The fee of $90 which the debtor paid the respondent in this case was not unreasonable or excessive

#1

3, The debtor in this case could have freely choose to go to any petition preparer or bankruptcy source which Advertisises those services the same as respondent including going to a bankruptcy Attorney, she did not the debtor freely choose to come to respondents' office and pay him $90 to show her how to help herself file bankruptcy under the bankruptcy code (Exhibits A, B)

4, ONCE the debtor came in the office AND came to respondents' desk AND advised him what chapter of the bankruptcy code she wanted to do he got the applicable forms out for that chapter AND allowed the debtor to sit at his desk which has a computer AND printer so she could begin to prepare her forms

5, Before getting up from his desk respondent put the applicable website in the computer so respondent could get her credit report if the debtor pulled a credit report on all three credit reports she could print them out

6, That $90 fee the debtor freely paid to respondent ALSO included up to at least (2) hrs or more at $30 an hour (notes $30 an hour was going rate for bankruptcy paralegal services in 2005) reviewing the bankruptcy forms the debtor prepared with her

#2

7. The document review included going through each page AND schedule of the Applicable bankruptcy forms with the debtor AND telling her to read each form AND section carefully read AND check the appropriate boxes; going through Exhibit D on Credit Counseling carefully read AND check the appropriate box; going through Schedule A read carefully; Schedule B read carefully AND answer accordingly None or provide description AND Location of property AND current value; Schedule C read carefully; Schedule D read carefully; Schedule E read carefully check appropriate boxes; Schedule F read carefully after she read form respondent showed her in first creditor box have to fill in Acct# AND mailing Address, date of claim AND amount of claim from her credit report or reports; Schedule G read carefully; Schedule H read carefully; Schedule I read carefully AND fill in applicable information; Schedule J read carefully AND fill in applicable information; STATEMENT of financial Affairs read carefully fill in applicable information; debtor took out application to pay filing fee in installments; debtor filled application for waiver of filing fee; STATEMENT of social Security read carefully; STATEMENT of current monthly income means test for Chapter 7 read carefully fill in applicable information AND gave her median income for her household size; Certification of

#3

Completion of Personal Financial Management told debtor she had to fill in required information if she had taken required course or after she took required course; went through summary of schedules with debtor told her to fill in applicable information; went through statistical summary with debtor told her to fill in applicable information

8, After preparing all her forms the debtor used respondent's computer to file her creditor matrix with the court

9, After preparing all her forms respondent made copies of the debtors' petition and schedules and placed them in a manilla folder for the debtor

10, If the debtor had not already taken a credit counseling included in her folder was a list of credit counseling and debtor education agencies she could contact, she was also given the address of the bankruptcy court and the room number and hours of operation for the bankruptcy clerk

11, That $90 fee the debtor freely paid to respondent also included cost for his overhead including cost of rent, phone, electric, printer, copy machine, copy paper which costs respondent incurs in providing a place which helped respondent help herself prepare and file her own bankruptcy papers.

#4

12. The debtors Chapter 7 bankruptcy was filed by the Clerk and there is no indication from the order in this case that the debtor received a notice of deficiency in regards her Chapter 7 filing or was harmed in any way by the services respondent provided debtor in helping her help herself prepare and file her own Chapter 7

13. The fee of $90 the debtor paid to respondent for the services he provided her in helping herself prepare and file her own bankruptcy papers was not unreasonable or excessive but was reasonable (Exhibits A-C)

For all the foregoing reasons the respondent objects to the order to show cause regarding fees of petition preparer Mr Lee

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED
AS DESCRIBED BELOW.

DATED: October 24, 2011

Honorable Margaret Dee McGarity
United States Bankruptcy Judge

IN THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

In re:

MARY L. LARK,

Debtor(s).

Case No. 11-34550

Chapter 7

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

Mr. Lee, the bankruptcy petition preparer in the above-captioned case having assisted the debtor in preparing the documents necessary to commence the Chapter 7 proceeding,

IT IS ORDERED that Mr. Lee shall appear before the Honorable Margaret Dee McGarity on November 16, 2011, at 11:45 a.m., in Room 150 of the United States Courthouse, 517 East Wisconsin Avenue, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, to show cause as to value of the services rendered, why the bankruptcy petition preparer fees should not be disgorged and why further sanctions should not be imposed.
